A field workshop on "Mangroves and wildlife"

The Estuarine and Coastal Studies Foundation (ECSF) is pleased to announce a two-day field workshop entitled "Mangroves and Wildlife", scheduled to be held on 2–3 October 2026 at the Indian Sundarbans, West Bengal.

The workshop is designed to provide participants with an opportunity to explore mangrove habitats, understand their ecological significance and study the diverse wildlife associated with these unique coastal ecosystems. The programme will emphasise field-based learning, biodiversity assessment, habitat characterisation and conservation strategies.
